

OUR LITURGY

When we see a picture of the Holy Family, the scene usually looks serene and peaceful. However, right from the start, it was not easy for Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Yet, their family was holy and full of love. It is in the ups and downs of family life that we are stretched to make room for more love. This is true in every family, as it was true for the Holy Family.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MIKE

“Put on as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another, as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts; the peace into which you were also called in one body.” “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly...And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

Today is the Feast of the Holy Family, and if it seems that it came upon us real fast, well it did. Normally there are at least a few days before this Sunday after Christmas comes upon us. But what can you do when Christmas is on a Saturday-as it was yesterday! Don’t even ask about next year when Christmas is on a Sunday! Usually December 26th is the Feast of St. Stephen, the first martyr of the Church and one of the Church’s first Deacons, and while we still remember the sacrifice of Stephen, we will focus more on the Holy Family. St. Paul’s Letter to the Colossians, today’s second reading, really gives us the clues as to how we can make a holy family for ourselves-this includes our Immediate Family, our Extended Family, and our Parish Family. We see this in the simple rules/suggestions quoted above. To follow St. Paul’s instructions may not be easy, but it does truly work. After all, they are based on the Teachings of Jesus, to love, to forgive, and to be patient. What could be better? Nothing! Yet, because it is hard to do, we sometimes just don’t do it and some families seem to fall apart. Sometimes people say well things are bad or we have fallen on hard times, and while this can certainly cause problems for all families, some seem to survive. Look in today’s Gospel Reading; Jesus, Mary and Joseph were not totally stress free. Herod wants to kill the Infant Jesus and most likely, in turn His mother and father, so they have to flee and go to a strange and distant land living in constant fear. In spite of that, they survived because they trusted in God and shared love and patience with one another.

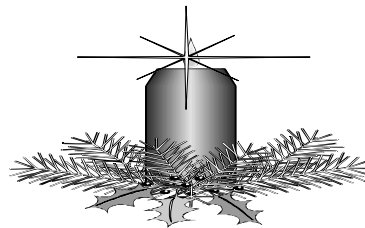

That is always the key to help make things work out. While it is true that some families (no matter how hard they work) are not meant to stay together (and probably should not stay together), if some families that were in danger would listen to St. Paul they might be able to survive. But it is hard, and one of the pressures on the family today is society itself.

Our society, which pays only lip service to the importance of the family, really does not support strong families or true family values-just look what’s on TV. Our society makes us all go out to work and work sometimes 2 or 3 jobs just to keep our heads above water. Our society makes Sunday a regular day of the week so people have to work or shop and thus we have lost the one day when families could get together. And there is so much more.

No, society does not really support the family, so all of us together must. We must help families not to give in to the pressures of the outside world and thus be torn apart at the seams. Please pray for those families that are in trouble, pray that they will be open to the power of the Holy Spirit so they can be healed. Pray that whatever we can do to help, we will do. And whatever we do in word or in deed, we will do in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Let us pray, Father in heaven, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the family of humanity. When all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time. Help us to live as the Holy Family, untied in respect and love. Teach us the sanctity of human life and love and help us to live in peace with all. Grant this through Jesus Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

Merry Christmas
Fr. Mike

Stewardship

When he discovered that Mary was with child, Joseph resolved to end their engagement with as little disgrace as possible. But obedient to the voice of God, he changed those plans and became instead the protector of the child Jesus and His mother Mary. God grant that I may be as open to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

RESPECT LIFE

Centuries ago, a young pregnant woman set out on a journey. She was probably nervous and scared, because her pregnancy was unexpected, scandalous, and mysterious. The young woman arrived at her cousin's home, where she hoped she would find welcome and understanding. And she was welcomed – not only by her cousin, but also by another who “leapt in her (cousin’s) womb” with joy. The first person to rejoice in the presence of Jesus was an unborn child.

We are reminded of those facts during this and every Christmas season, and some of us can relate this incident to others that are somewhat similar and are happening all around us. Facing an unexpected pregnancy takes courage – how to deal with the shock, how to tell family, what to do next? Expectant mothers, fathers, grandparents and friends all face this challenge. When we remember that God wants life and happiness for all of us, including the preborn child He’s created, we find strength to let God make it happen in our lives.

A woman in need of help during an unexpected pregnancy can find it through the Catholic Church. Catholic Charities, Respect Life offices, and crisis pregnancy centers are staffed by loving, nonjudgmental people who simply want to share Jesus’ love with women and children during and after the spiritual and material challenges of pregnancy.

A woman who has had an abortion can find help, as well, any priest can offer the healing love of Christ through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and most dioceses have a program called Project Rachel, a special ministry for post-abortive women that sponsors support groups and weekend retreats. Though not directly involved in such a situation, you can pray for all pregnant women especially those who might be struggling with a decision at this very moment.

Nurture nonjudgmental, welcoming attitudes toward pregnant women, the unborn, and young children, no matter what the circumstances. Welborn, Our Sunday Visitor, Inc., 2003

Change in the Sign of Peace

Some members of the Liturgy Committee have brought it to our attention that the newest edition of “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” (which directs us how to celebrate the Mass and went into effect in September) specifies “It is .. appropriate that each person offer the sign of peace only to those who are nearest and in a sober manner.” It later directs “The priest may give the sign of peace to the ministers but always remains within the sanctuary, so as not to disturb the celebration. ... on special occasions the priest may offer the sign of peace to a few of the faithful near the sanctuary.”

It is for this reason that you will notice the priests and servers are no longer leaving the sanctuary during the Mass.

DEPOSIT BOTTLES AND CANS—Please place them in the white trailer that is located on the school side of the Church on weekends or behind the rectory during the week.

CELL PHONES—Please bring your no longer used or needed cell phones and deposit them at the Scrip table in the Church lobby.

Even Used Inkjet Cartridges, Have Their Uses

We have found a way to help St Joseph and keep those complicated pieces of plastic, metal and printed circuit boards out of the land fill. Drop them off (in a plastic baggie) when you come to mass. We will send them to a company who reuses them and gives the parish a bounty for each. One note, to clear confusion, if it is larger than a fist, it is not an inkjet cartridge!!!
